

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1

Once Upon a Time	pg 1
-----------------------------------	------

story of a man's spiritual search; quotes from The Splendor of Asia; the Buddha.

Chapter 2

A Nip Here, A Tuck There	pg 11
---	-------

story of disillusioned Indian missionary; karma not an excuse to do nothing; how doctrinal changes occur; example of suttee; Christianity as viewed from the outside; the tone of the Buddha's teachings; historical Christianity; Christ and reincarnation; the Gnostics; Divinity school asks questions about actual teachings of Christ; aims of the early Christian church; are teachings of Christ and Buddha really as far apart as they seem?

Chapter 3

A Bigger Picture	pg 27
-----------------------------------	-------

curvature of the earth; 100,000,000,000 stars per galaxy, 100,000,000,000 galaxies; the tribal God of the west; cosmology according to science; improbable cosmic precision; improbability of a Creator in the mold of the west's God; evolution of life according to science; inventory of human anatomy; improbability of a Creatorless universe; problems with scientific view.

Chapter 4

Creation pg 41

story of Indian fakir's illusion and the English reporter; Indian rope trick; has thought energy?; pair creation and annihilation in physics; fishes and loaves; the focused mind--visualization meditation; Tibetan mandalas; siddhas (the powers); God, thought, and creation; an answer to science's problems.

Chapter 5

The World is a Stage, and All the Illusions are Actors pg 51

Gary Larson cartoon; Descartes and argument for God; God and perfection becoming more perfect; Awareness learning to exist in matter; dealing with the unknown; levels of consciousness and the plant kingdom; oversouls; levels of consciousness and the animal kingdom; levels of consciousness beyond humankind.

Chapter 6

Sleeping Gods pg 63

instinct versus human thought; in beginning, Consciousness forms extended personality; the child-self; illusion and the child; from the unreal to the real; Consciousness grows; Hindu version of karma; Buddhist version of karma; Hindu version of reincarnation; Buddhist version of reincarnation; story about the Bensons; Buddha's Four Truths; the answer?

Chapter 7

The Emptiness that is Full pg 73

what do the Four Truths mean?; story of Gray, the cat; emptiness of child-self's world; child's efforts to support self; the fullness that is empty; Gray and Bensons revisited;

Four Truths of Buddha, a commentary on the child-self; Noble Eightfold Path; a change of focus; what is real?; lovingness; the emptiness that is full.

Chapter 8

Yoga I. pg 87

refinement in ancient world; history of knowledge in ancient world--Alexandrian and Pergamum libraries; the Mystery Schools; mystery teachings and secrecy; yogic discipline similar to Mystery School disciplines (same goals); Patanjali; first limbs of yoga--yama and niyama; the siddhas and a need for purity; Avatars and "taking on the sins of the world."

Chapter 9

Yoga II pg 99

energy flows in the body; chakras; third limb--the Asanas (positions); opening of the kundalini fire; Ramakrishna and the kundalini; fourth limb--Pranayama; fifth limb--Pratyahara; the pig people; sixth limb--Dharana; seventh limb--Dhyana; eighth limb--Samadhi; difference between Samadhi and Nirvana; types of yoga--Karma yoga, Jnana yoga, Bhakti yoga, Raj yoga, Hatha yoga, Kundalini yoga, Tantric yoga.

Chapter 10

Death pg 111

story of Heraclitus: HERE, NOW; the inner worlds; stepping across the line; personal examination of previous life; compensatory states of Devachan; other states after Devachan; the lower astral; addiction and the lower astral; earthbounds; overshadowers and desire to experience addictions; exorcisms; New Age topics--channeling, ghosts, astral projection, raising the dead.

Chapter 11

How Very Peculiar pg 125

Marianne's psychic problem; psychic development and the siddhas; who's there?; karmic repercussion of forcing psychic development; it all fits together naturally.

Chapter 12

Remembrance pg 139

Moody and near-death-experience research; near death scenario; near death exp. and suicide; forgetfulness as a useful karmic tool; forgetfulness complimenting life-teachings; remembrance and highly evolved Beings; experience can scar without one's remembrance of specifics; the child prodigy; transpersonal psychology; Dr. Ian Stevenson and past life research; case studies of children with past life remembrance; case studies of past life remembrance through hypnosis.

Chapter 13

Darkness and Light pg 157

the Dalai Lama; my little happening; Masters; the writing of H.P. Blavasky; the Theosophical Society; writings about guardians of humanity; spiritual evolution and the Kaliyuga; time of choice; chelas and the stresses of the chela life; the rare failed chela; brothers of the shadow; battle between Darkness and Light.

Chapter 14

Gratitude, Pain, and Illusion pg 173

story of old man and his abundance; acceptance versus fatalism; gratitude; pain and little enlightenments; a mole on my nose; India and Darjeeling hospital; a peaceful body--a point of gratitude; gratitude as a universal solvent; North Hollywood High and the experience that wouldn't let go; experience has content; pain as an illusion, pain as a teacher; illusion everywhere--the atom; experience holds on until understanding comes; letting go once understood; modern psychology--expression and suppression; spiritual discipline of gratitude; St. Francis and gratitude.

Chapter 15

Nature pg 191

westerner's eating habits; western style arguments for and against vegetarianism; Eastern perspective; atoms absorb thought; a slaughtered animal's body soaked with fear and pain; subtle meditation disrupted; animals as experiencing Beings--humankind's younger brothers; killing an animal versus killing a plant; predator/prey argument (just natural for animals to eat other animals); humankind sets tone for nature; nature reflects state of humankind; harmlessness as spiritual state; initiatory places--England and Egypt; nature and the Devic kingdom.

Chapter 16

Relationships and Karmic Knots. pg 213

karma's duty; Cathy's friend's story; meditation on the story; the 1400's life; the 20th century life; the karmic knots involved; karma working in freewheeling mode; karma working to untie karmic knots; you never know where you are with karma.

Chapter 17

Sex pg 223

karma freewheeling and karmic knots: the facade--a tool for the insecure self; the facade--an illusion to appear appealing; the glamour--seeing what you want to see; my first glamour--a 1960 Corvette; selective viewing; bonding between individuals through sex in relationships; finding a mate; recipe for disaster; mental aspect of sexual relationship; soul mate; karma and hidden propensities of mate; sex education; sex as form of entertainment; melding auras during sex; energy vortex, inner worlds and having sex; thought-forms associated with sexual fantasy--masturbation; celibacy; story of monks and woman at stream; celibacy as spiritual discipline; looking past sex.

Chapter 18

Meditation I pg 243

the "cool" child-self; psychology of imminent death--the panic-stricken child; questions asked when death is imminent; a change of focus--what have I built into myself?; you are your own parent; feel-good meditations--T.M.; mantras; negation and the dangers of blank-mind meditations; healing meditations; the dangers of group meditations; introspection--why has life brought me to this?; confronting the child's habit patterns and creating new ones; emotions; subtlety in meditation--a flower; Christ and the "love thy neighbor" meditation; touching the living thought of a spiritual teacher.

Chapter 19

Meditation II pg 257

paradox to express inexpressible; poetry to express inexpressible; quotes to ponder; Zen koan; life as a meditation--the story of Abdul and the mosque.

Chapter 20

Meditation III pg 267

a student exercise in meditation--Attention; the Here and Now; tapping pencil--dealing with disharmony; why is it so hard to be good?; resist not evil; St. Augustine; changing child's habit patterns--a discipline; the clap; Zen tradition and enlightenment through sudden focusing; life does it well, life does it all.

Chapter 21

When Bad Things Happen pg 275

why do terrible things happen?; a question of rape; spiritual evolution; psychology of the child self; is killing every acceptable--a scenario from western, then eastern perspective; the child's response to horrors; Gandhi; the psychology of non-violence; an example from Gandhi, the movie; Nazi Germany; missing the point; three scenarios for WWII; the heart of Gandhian non-violence.

Chapter 22

Wonder pg 303

a professorial attitude; arithmetic and geometric series; the amazing Fibannoci series; Phi; mathematics of Phi; the golden rectangle; Phi in nature; the pentagram, Pythagoras, and Phi; the Great Pyramid--its history, Napoleon's interest, the precision within, Phi, Pi, where did it come from; the wonder; story of chela.

Appendix I

Quotations pg 323

quotations attributed and unattributed

Appendix II

Einstein's Physics and Illusion	pg 355
--	--------

historical background--Young's experiment, ether and light, Michelson-Morley experiment; assumptions of Special Relativity (qualitative presentation); Newton, Space and Time; speed of light invariant; four-space and General Relativity; time not constant; curved space, flat space; cesium clocks and proof; evolution of a star; jumping into a Black Hole.

Appendix III

A Case for the Unbelievable	pg 369
--	--------

Nature magazine and Benveniste's proof of homeopathy; anecdotal case for homeopathy; Hahnemann and theoretical case for homeopathy; scientific skepticism; something to lose; supposed debunking; science as religion; forbidden topics; skeptics; "never try to teach a pig how to sing . . ."

Index

Index	pg 381
------------------------	--------