

Off-the-Wall question #4: You would like to experimentally determine the acceleration of gravity. How many experimental procedures can you generate to do that? For each, state the physics principle you will be exploiting, the lab procedure, the equipment needed and the data to be taken.